04/04/17	12:30 PM	ATTEMPTED BURGLARY FORM MOTOR	DIESEL & METALS BUILDING	17-0404-2	04/11/17	At 12:30pm on 04/04/17 (DMC Student) came to the Security Office to report some of his fishing poles that he had in the bed of his truck were damaged. Student stated he parked his truck on the east side of Lot G between the Diesel and Metals Buildings at 7:00am today, and noticed the broken poles when he returned to his pickup truck at 12:30pm. The video was reviewed and showed a male subject wearing a light colored shirt and dark pants and also wearing a backpack, walking toward a light colored Chevrolet pickup. The pickup is parked in a reversed position. The subject walks toward the passenger side of the pickup and opens the door. He appears to put his backpack in the truck. He then comes around the driver's side and gets in the truck sitting there for a couple of minutes with the door open. The driver then moves his truck forward where his doors are aligned to the victim's truck bed. The victim's truck is parked head in alongside the subject's truck. The male subject then closes his driver door and leaves the parking spot. He circles the parking area three times and is back to the victim's truck, stopping only a few seconds the first two times. On the third time, the subject exits his truck while it is parked behind the victim's truck. The driver leaves his door open and then opens his driver's side passenger door. He then approaches the victim's truck bed on the driver's side. The subject reaches in and grabs an object, but does not leave with anything in his hands. He then gets back into his vehicle and leaves the area completely. At 9:55am on 04/11/17 Security Officers were conducting a patrol in Lot G when Security Officer noticed the Chevrolet pickup from the 04/04/17 video. The Security Officers noticed a male subject sleeping in the driver's seat. They notified CCPD Officers as well as Dispatcher. The male subject was asked to exit his vehicle and identified himself as (DMC Student). He was questioned about the previous incident on 04/04/17. He admitted trying to take the fishing poles and breaking them in the attempt, but did not succeed in leaving with them. He was given a Criminal Trespass Warning. A report for a Burglary of a Vehicle was generated. Case #1704110044. A description of the fishing poles are on file with the Security Office.	CRIMINAL TRESPASS Case #1704110044
04/04/17	6:35 PM	CRIMINAL TRESPASS	CED	17-0202-6	04/09/17	At about 7:35pm on 02/02/17, (GED Student) became disruptive in class and began shouting obscenities. (GED Instructor) asked Student to stop cursing and to settle down. After Student continued disrupting the class, Instructor asked the Student to leave the classroom. Student continued shouting profanities, throwing papers and slamming the door several times on his way out of the room. Student walked down the hall continuing to shout, Instructor walking behind him and called CCPD. At about this time Security Officer came into the building from outside patrol, and attempted to calm down the Student. But Student refused to calm down and continued shouting. CCPD arrived on scene. After Student calmed down, he was informed he was being dropped from class. Student was later picked up by his mother. The instructor provided a written statement about the incident. That statement is on file in the Security Office. The Student was issued a Criminal Trespass Warning.

04/12/17	12:20 PM	HIT AND RUN VEHICLE	MUSIC BUILDING	17-0413-1	04/13/17	At 12:24pm on 04/12/17 Security Officer was dispatched to the Music Building parking lot for a report of a vehicle that had rolled out of a parking spot, and hit a parked vehicle. When S/O arrived, she saw a 2003 gray Ford Taurus sitting in the middle of the lane causing traffic to back up. No one was in the vehicle, and Unit 1 CCPD Officers were called for assistance. There was no parking permit on the vehicle and the owner was unable to be located. The Taurus was parked in the last row next to Ayers St. and had rolled backward to a blue Ford (unidentified model) that was parked directly across from the Taurus. Both rear bumpers had made contact. As S/O redirected traffic, Unit 1A CCPD Officer called a towing service to impound the vehicle. The license plate came back to a with owner's name. The driver of the Taurus never came back to the vehicle while the Officers were there. When the Easy Rider Wrecker Service arrived, it was discovered that the shift gear was in drive. Easy Rider Wrecker Service towed the vehicle. S/O had inspected both vehicles involved; they did not have visible damages. S/O took pictures of the vehicles and are on file in the Security Office. A note was placed on the windshield of the blue Ford to contact Security. CCPD officer filed a police report of a Hit and Run with the case# 1704120056. At 3:00pm the driver of the Taurus called the Security Office and was asked to come to the office for further details of his vehicle. CCPD Officers spoke with the driver. The owner of the blue Ford also called and identified herself. She was advised of the situation and asked to come to the Security Office if she wanted to report any damage to her vehicle. She stated she would come by early in the Morning. She did not come to the Security Office.	CASE# 1704120056
