08/02/17	10:29AM	CRIMINAL TRESPASS	WHITE LIBRARY	17-0802-1	08/07/17	Dispatched to the White Library for a complaint of a male subject bothering a female student. CCPD Officers approached male (Non-DMC Student) on the 4th floor of the library as he was sitting down, writing on his notepad. CCPD Officer asked him if he was a current student, if he had any type of identification on him and why he was there. The male said that he didn't have an ID on him, but he was a current student since he had just registered two days ago and that he was there to work on a paper. Officer then asked for his information and told him that since he didn't have an ID on him, he was going to search his bag. Since Officer could not find anything containing his name in his bag, he had a Del Mar College faculty member help him find out if he was a current student. In the meantime, The male suspect asked if he could go smoke since the presence of the officers were making him uncomfortable. Officer told him no, that smoking was not allowed on campus and that he should not feel that way if he had nothing to hide. The male then proceeded to talk about Pokémon, working on his paper, etc. Officer found out that The male was not a current student and gave him a Criminal Trespass Warning in which he refused to sign. S/O took a picture of him. Officer Harrison tell him to get in contact with the Security Office. Male suspect was escorted off campus by CCPD Officer and S/O while the other Officer and S/O talked to the complainant. The complainant, (DMC Student), told them that she was on the 2nd floor of the library typing her paper when she heard a loud voice behind her. Suddenly, the Male sat next to her and asked for help on his paper. She asked him what class the paper was for and what his major was. He answered her by asking what her major was and if she knew how to dance. He kept asking her questions as she was trying to type her paper. As he kept asking more questions, she started to get scared to which he noticed then told her "I'm making you uncomfortable". DMC Student said that at first, he was acting silly but as he kept asking questions, he got more serious. Finally, he left her alone and left the second floor. Student said that at first, he was acting silly but as he kept asking questions, he got more serious. Finally, he left her alone and left the second floor. Student commented that he seemed mentally off to her and that she contacted her.
